1.2 Obligations of AdaCore

AdaCore will organize the Training described in the quote.

AdaCore warrants that the Training will be given by an Instructor with adequate qualification and professional skills. For Training given on the Customer’s premises, AdaCore warrants that the Instructor will follow Customer’s safety and security requirements.

To minimize expenses, AdaCore may book air tickets or hotel rooms needed by the Instructor as soon as it receives the Customer’s purchase order.

1.3 Obligations of the Customer

Customer will provide AdaCore with a list of the Trainees (including their name and title) by the start of the Training. Customer will ensure that all Trainees have proficiency in the language of the Training.

Customer shall provide appropriate computing resources to Trainees so that the Training Software can be installed and be available for the Training.

Customer acknowledges the Trainees are subject to the safety and security regulations enacted by the owner of the Training location.

1.4 Cancellation

If Customer cancels the Training more than thirty (30) calendar days before its planned date, Customer is liable only for the travel and accommodation expenses already incurred by AdaCore.

If Customer cancels the Training between twenty-nine (29) and eight (8) calendar days before its planned date, the Customer is liable for the travel and accommodation expenses already incurred by AdaCore plus half of the price of the Training.

If Customer cancels the Training less than eight (8) days before the scheduled Training, the Customer is liable for the travel and accommodation expenses already incurred by AdaCore plus the entirety of the cost of the Training.
1.5 Change in the Number of Trainees

Customer may increase or decrease the number of Trainees up to eight (8) days before the scheduled Training. This may require a new quote and a new price.

If the number of Trainees is reduced in the last seven (7) calendar days before the planned date of the Training or if one or more Trainees do not attend, the Customer remains liable for the Training fees corresponding to the missing Trainees.

1.6 Licenses
